Hollywood Park Is Getting a Community Mural!

Story by Max McSlavkin; photos by Max & Erin McSlavkin

The Sacramento Office of Arts + Culture recently launched a new citywide mural program, bringing community murals to each council district in the city. Thanks in large part to building owners Beilei Zhang and Amy Chan, and the persistence of Hollywood

Park resident Erin McSlavkin, the mural for District 5 will be right here in Hollywood Park!

“This pilot program came directly out of discussions with the community when creating the City’s Creative Edge plan and Cultural Equity plan around infusing... story continues on page 5”

Max moved to Hollywood Park in 2020 from San Francisco with his wife Erin and their cat Dr. Anthony Meowci (you can call him Tony).

After growing up in LA and then living 10 years in the Bay Area, he's excited to settle in what's clearly the greatest neighborhood in Sacramento.

He's CEO of Creative Action Network, an online art marketplace, and is excited to help boost Hollywood Park's online presence to build community and raise more funds. When he's not working, he's walking along the river, working in the garden, or chasing Tony down the street.

Local Art at J. Crawford Books

By Sue Richards

Please drop by my store, J. Crawford Books to view the artworks that are now on display; each of the artists came to my attention differently.

Large selection of greeting cards by artist Melissa Andrews

Melissa Andrews is my ad rep with Land Park News. I found out that Melissa was also an artist when she was the first to approach me regarding selling her cards at the store. Her cards are hugely popular and now have a following of people who come in just for the cards.

Debbie Keller was my son's 2nd grade teacher at Leonardo Da-Vinci School. I heard that Debbie was making greeting cards so I invited her to sell them at the store. Debbie has a wonderful sense of humor (very dry) and the customers love her quirky cards. Debbie's life before teaching was in graphic design and marketing, and she is also a children's book author.

Artist Amy Caffrey stands next to a display featuring her greeting cards

Amy Caffrey is one of my long-term customers. Amy approached me when she saw the cards in the store from Melissa and Debbie. I love her creativity and how her cards are three dimensional.

Henry Robinson, who made the wooden birds, was a singer/songwriter and the father of one of my friends. His hobby was his art until he passed away in late 2019.

Two local jewelry makers, Denise Blake and Annika Love, have their work on display at the store.

My daughter Jennie sells her fiber crafts, such as crocheted hats and embroidered tea towels, at the store as well.

J. Crawford Books is next door to Hollywood Hardware; our website is www.crawfordbooks.net.

Mayor Launches Multi-pronged Approach to Homelessness 20 sites identified throughout Sacramento

Data from Mayor Steinberg's website compiled by Julie Scheff

On August 4th, 2021, Mayor Darrel Steinberg released a report detailing 20 sites for housing as many as 3,600 people. The City Council was slated to vote on the proposal on August 10th, 2021.

Steinberg intends to house close to 10,000 homeless people with a combination of his 20-site plan and existing short- and long-term solutions, with his proposed $100 million two-year program. Highlights of the plan, according to the mayor's website include:

- 715 car/tent spaces
- 562 tiny homes/manufactured units
- 115 emergency shelter beds
- 750 motel conversions
- 350 motel vouchers

The report proposes 5,305 total new roofs with beds and spaces for an annual capacity of 9,820 people.

District 5 Councilmember Jay Schenirer has identified three sites within District 5, along with sites shared with neighboring districts, one site shared with District 4 and another site shared with District 7. District 5 includes Hollywood Park and is bordered by Highway 50 to the north, Stockton Blvd. to the east, Florin Road to the south and Franklin Blvd. to the west.

1. 29th Ave. (D5): Tiny homes
2. 3331 Fruitridge Road (D5): Safe Ground and safe parking
3. 24th Street/48th Ave. (D5): Safe Ground and safe parking
4. Under W/X Freeway (shared with D4): Tiny homes
5. Florin Road RT parking lot (shared with D7): Safe parking

The Raley's parking lot on Freeport Blvd. is not among the considered sites.

arts and culture into our neighborhoods and city council districts in Sacramento,” said Donald Gensler, the City’s public art project manager. “This is an exciting opportunity to bring community and artist collaborations to each district.”

Hollywood Park neighbors meet the artists and share ideas at the Community Input Meeting at the mural site

The new mural will be going up on the big white wall at 4611 Freeport Blvd., and is set to be completed by the end of 2021. The incredible team of artists selected for our site—Jaya King (lead), Nicole Keith, Uli Smith, and Amy Zin Zhang, are already hard at work, hosting a Community Input Meeting at the mural site on July 27th and a photo day at the Table Farm on August 21st, both with an incredible turnout from the neighborhood. They’ll also be planning a Community Paint Day (date TBD), for Hollywood Park neighbors to show up and help paint.

Lead artist Jaya King said, “I’m thrilled to be working with the Hollywood Park neighborhood for our District 5 mural. Being able to connect with members of the community is an integral part of this project. Getting to know everyone, hearing their stories, and laughing alongside them will help to shape the design I’m diving into. I have an amazing team and we’re chomping at the

The CommuniTree Corner

News from the volunteers of CommuniTree

Hollywood Park: A Neighborhood of Trees

By Irene Wilson

The CommuniTree Team would like to remind Hollywood Park neighbors that we are planning our fourth annual Planting Day with the Sacramento Tree Foundation on Saturday, October 30th, 2021. If you would like a free shade tree for your front yard and assistance in planting your tree, call the Sacramento Tree Foundation at (916) 924-8733. Tell them your tree is part of the Hollywood Park CommuniTree Project.

If you are interested in volunteering to help on Planting Day, register at www.sactree.com/events. It's a fun morning activity followed by a free lunch at noon. High school students might use this for their community service requirement. For more information contact Irene Wilson at eyerene625@gmail.com.

We are also planning another CommuniTree Bike Ride for Sunday, November 7th, 2021, starting at 1 p.m. at Two Rivers Cider (4311 Attawa Ave.). We will be riding through the neighborhood with a docent from the Sacramento Tree Foundation who will identify mature shade trees and share fun facts about each tree. More information about the event will be posted on social media and flyers around the neighborhood. We hope to see you on the ride.

Note: The CommuniTree Planting Day event is not affiliated with the Hollywood Park Neighborhood Association.

Announcing Seed Grants for D5

From the Office of District 5 City Councilmember Jay Schenirer

Vice Mayor, Jay Schenirer

Every year, our office gives the District 5 (D5) community an opportunity to apply for a seed grant. Due to the fact that we were not able to move forward with these grants last year, applicants had the opportunity to be awarded up to $1,000 for projects such as neighborhood beautification, capacity building within the neighborhood association and much more. The goal of these grants is to build more welcoming, thriving communities and neighborhood/business organizations in District 5. This year we received applications for a variety of projects that our office was eager to support, including one in Hollywood Park!

The funds from this seed grant will go towards helping the CommuniTree Committee organize and facilitate the planting of shade trees in the Hollywood Park and Carleton Tract neighborhoods this fall. Since 2018, Committee members have helped plant over 100 trees supplied by the Sacramento Tree Foundation and have become a well-known part of the community. Additionally, the Hollywood Park Neighborhood Association will allocate some of the funds to distribute the quarterly neighborhood newsletter to each household. We are eager to watch this project unfold!

Centennial United Methodist Church Hosts National Night Out Event

Story by Julie Scheff, photos by Ralph McDaniel

Hawaiian music, corn hole tossing, and visits from police officers and elected officials took place at a National Night Out on Tuesday August 3rd. Centennial United Methodist Church hosted the event in their grassy and tree-shaded courtyard at the corner of Freeport Blvd. and Murieta Way.

“This was our first National Night Out, and we hope to do it again.”

Organizers encouraged both neighbors and church members to mingle and visit information booths about the local food bank and the church and get bites of watermelon, ice cream and cookies. A “passport” noting a visit to all the arranged stops merited a goody bag upon departing the event.

An estimated 60 to 70 folks attended the National Night Out get-together at Centennial Church

“This was our first National Night Out, and we hope to do it again,” said Gerlene Kwan, who is part of the outreach team at the Church. “It gives a sense of community, getting to know each other and helping improve the community.” She estimates there were 60-70 people who came out between 6 to 8 p.m. on that 100-degree evening.

Three police officers from the local station at Franklin Blvd. near Fruitridge Blvd. paid a visit and mingled with the crowd who were enjoying snacks and the sounds of KaBang!, a ukulele & guitar quartet.

Music for the National Night Out crowd was provided by Hawaiian music quartet KaBang!

Vice Mayor and District 5 City Councilmember Jay Schenirer was on hand along with County Representative Patrick Kennedy and staff members to give updates on district happenings and answer residents’ questions.

Anyone interested in booking KaBang! for an event are welcome to call Ms. Kimi Kaneko at (916) 718-0379.

HPNA Ice Cream Social

More than 75 neighbors came to enjoy the treats donated by Vice Mayor and District 5 City Councilmember Jay Schenirer. If you missed it this year watch for it next year. Many thanks to St. Robert Catholic Church, and the Vice Mayor!
